CUSTOMER, SUPPLIER, VENDOR: HUMAN RIGHTS STATEMENT

G4S Kenya Ltd customers, suppliers and vendors are required to subscribe and commit to the basic human right, as already committed to by G4S, in the course of the partnership in business execution and service provision.

G4S Kenya Ltd is committed to fulfilling its responsibilities on human rights by applying the United Nations Guiding Principles on Business and Human Rights (2011) across all of our businesses.

The Guiding Principles affirm four international standards that have achieved broad international consensus as a human rights baseline for all businesses.

- The Universal Declaration of Human Rights (1947)
- The International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights (1966)
- The International Convention on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (1966)
- The International Labor Organization Declaration on Fundamental Rights at Work (1998)

The G4S Human Rights Policy has been developed to ensure that we respect the human rights of all stakeholders and prevent human rights violations arising from our activities whenever we can. Subsequently all our customers, suppliers and vendors are required to subscribe and commit to the above mentioned G4S Human Rights Policy.

We believe that high standards of ethical conduct provide a market differentiator and therefore our customers, suppliers and vendors are required to exhibit the highest ethical standards which will have the most positive impact on the lives of those around us and ultimately, will result to successful partnerships.
